

TED ALMON, President, CEO
Clafin Company

Mr. Almon became President & CEO of the Clafin Company in 1976, upon its purchase by the Almon Company. He spent the six prior years in progressive sales and marketing positions for Baxter Laboratories (now Baxter International). Under his direction, Clafin has grown vigorously and has become recognized within the industry as a pioneer in advanced logistics programs for hospitals. He has served on the editorial advisory board of Hospital Purchasing News, Repertoire, Health Industry Today, and Hospital Materials Management. Mr Almon is also Chairman of the Board of Clafin Medical Equipment Company, which provides specialty equipment and biomedical repair services to the hospital and alternate site markets. He is the current Board Chairman of National Distribution and Contracting Inc., a master distributor/buying group in the healthcare distribution supply chain.
